HONG KONG VISA SHERPA

CASE ASSESSMENT TOOL

Entry Employment Visa with Family

"Is the applicant a Professional possessing special skills, knowledge or experience of value to and not readily available in Hong Kong? Is the employer justified in engaging the services of an expatriate employee? Is the compensation offered broadly commensurate with market rates for similar professionals in Hong Kong? Has the local labour market been tested prior to offering the role to the foreign national? Is there a reasonable proof of genuine relationship between the dependant(s) and the sponsor? Is the sponsor able to support the dependant's living in HKSAR?"

Assessment Criteria	What it Means	Red Flags	lf Red Flag, What Next?	Your Notes
Is the applicant a Professional?	Does the applicant have at least a university degree and a minimum of 2 years post graduation working experience in a managerial or supervisory capacity?	No degree Fresh graduate Less than 2 years post graduation work experience Not a manager or supervisor	Technical or vocational qualifications instead? How much work experience do they actually have? If not managing or supervising others, do they manage and/or supervise a specific, highly professional work function exclusively?

Special skills, knowledge, experience of value to and not readily available in Hong Kong	Routine, non- Professional level activity does not fall within the approval criteria Work activity must not in any way be nefarious or objectively represent a negative to Hong Kong The skills must not be very generally available in Hong Kong	Pure admin or admin support work The work nature must objectively contribute to the positive commercial fortunes of the HKSAR Unless an intracompany transferee situation, the local labour market must have been (unsuccessfully) tested for the skills previously	Consider Professional Help
Is there a genuine job vacancy?	The role has been contrived to merely 'solve a visa problem'	The applicant is not expected to actually undertake any duties nor receive the salary enunciated in the job offer and/or contract of employment	Do not proceed with the application as a criminal offence may accrue
Is there a confirmed offer of employment extended to the applicant?	The details of the employment terms and conditions must be reduced to writing and signed by employer and employee	Employment start dates prior to expected approval date	Include a clause in the employment agreement / letter of offer which states "this employment will only begin once the permission of the Hong Kong Immigration Department has been secured'
Is the job in question relevant to the applicant's qualifications or prior work experience?	The skills, professional qualities, education background and prior work experience must be highly relevant to the role in question	Obvious mis- match between the professional credentials of the applicant and the work proposed in Hong Kong	Consider Professional Help

Could this work readily be taken up by a local employee instead?	Should a local person be doing this role rather than a foreign national?	No local labour marketing testing prior to extending the job offer to the foreigner	Advertise the role in Hong Kong for at least 2 weeks, complete the interview / assessment exercise and definitively rule out the prospect of a local being employed to do the work instead of a foreigner
Is the total remuneration package broadly commensurate with market rates for similar professionals in Hong Kong?	Are you offering a salary and benefits package which is less than that which would have to be paid to a local employee?	Total compensation and benefits package less than HKD18,000 for a Bachelor degree holder and HKD25,000 for a Master degree holder	Consider Professional Help
Do the applicant and dependant(s) have any prior negative dealings with the Hong Kong Immigration Department?	Has the applicant or dependant(s) ever been refused an application for an employment or dependant or other type of visa in Hong Kong or ever been refused entry into Hong Kong?	Prior visa refusal Prior refusal of entry Prior investigation for breach of conditions of stay	Consider Professional Help
Is the applicant or dependant(s) of 'good character'?	Does the applicant or dependant(s) have a known record of serious crime?	Any criminal conviction	Consider Professional Help

Is there a reasonable proof of genuine relationship between the dependant(s) and the sponsor?	Are the applicant and spouse officially married and able to provide an official marriage certificate issued by the local authority in the country of marriage? Is the applicant able to provide his/her children's official birth certificates showing the names of both parents are the applicant and spouse?	Children are over 18 Children are from spouse's previous marriage Applicant and spouse are not officially married but have been cohabitating for a period of time	Consider Professional Help
Is the sponsor able to support the dependant's living at a standard well above the subsistence level and provide him/her with suitable accommodation in the HKSAR?	Is the sponsor 's income sufficient to support the family?	Sponsor's income can barely support family	Consider Professional Help
Are the applicant and dependant's travel document valid?	Do the applicant and dependant(s) hold a valid passport with validity of at least 2 years?	Passport Expired Less than 6 months validity Less than 1-2 years validity Is your passport signed?	Renew passport as soon as possible Extend passport as soon as possible If your passport is still valid and has 1-2 years validity, the duration of your visa granted will not go beyond the current passport expiry date unless you apply for a new passport Sign your passport